The City of Buffalo and Greater Buffalo Italian Heritage Festival must be named as an Additional Insured.

C. ITEMS & PRICING

All items sold are subject to board approval, if an item is not on your application and you are selling it, the board will ask you to stop. The board cannot tell any vendors what to sell their items for, but we do ask that you keep your prices at about the same rate for fairness and optimal profit.

D. MAINTENANCE

Vendors are required to provide 2 trash containers and trash bags for each single booth. The Board will provide trash containers in public areas. It will be the responsibility of the vendors to empty each container during the hours of operation, as needed. The trash must be disposed of at the nearest dumpster which is provided by the festival. Vendors must deposit their trash into the dumpsters only and not into the containers provided for patrons of the festival. It will be the responsibility of each vendor to adequately clean and maintain their booth(s) and surrounding public areas, including behind your booth, at all times during the festival. At the closing of each day, vendors must bag all trash and deposit the trash bags into the nearest dumpster. On the last day of festival all garbage from vendors it to be brought to dumpster, not left in middle of the street. No trash may be stored on festival grounds or adjacent to vendor booths at any time. If your booth area is not completely cleaned, the festival board will assess a $300 clean up fee. This will be strictly enforced. Invoice will be mailed to you.
